PEW NEWS Sunday 23rd July 2023

Living out the love of Christ in our worship and service to all people.

Welcome

A warm welcome to everyone. We are glad you have joined us in this celebration of our life of faith in God. There is a special church area to help children feel at home here, and we hope you will join us for morning tea after the Service.

The Bible Readings for today - 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Genesis 28: 10-19a Romans 8: 12-25 Matthew 13: 24-30, 36-43

INTRODUCTION

Through the parable of the weeds among the wheat, Jesus reminds us that we live in a hostile world, that good and bad are intermingled, that we must live cooperatively for the good of all, and that we ought to leave judgment to God. We are to live in awe in the presence of a just God who meets us where we are, who is with us and will keep us, wherever we go.

Call to Worship

- Leader: We look at this world, focusing on the pain and confusion, the fears and hatred which seem to abound.
- All: For what can we hope?
- Leader: We wait breathlessly for the goodness of creation to be made manifest in all the world, for this is the promise of God.
- All: God is always with us, guiding, rescuing, healing, restoring us.
- Leader: Get ready, dear friends, the promises of God are true.
- All: Lord, quiet our spirits and open our hearts. Bring us hope and peace. Amen.

Sentence

You, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness. Psalm 86:15

Collect

God of all power and might,
the author and giver of all good things,
graft in our hearts the love of your name,
increase in us all goodness,
and of your great mercy
keep us in the same;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
