Notices (con't):

Morning Teas on Sundays— we have had a couple of withdrawals from the morning tea roster recently. If you are able to prepare and serve the cuppa after Church on the second Sunday of the month please contact Carole on ☎ 3883004. We need two volunteers please—it means less work than one person doing it all.

Congratulations to vestry member Ari Morgan, awarded "Top Student Award" in Customer Relations Course, Business and Digital Technologies, at Ara in December 2021.

At the joint service on 30th January, Edwin Boyce gave a talk about making a gift to the Church in your will. He left some notes containing details on what and how to go about doing this. If you wish a copy of these notes or even to discuss them please do not hesitate to contact Adrian Brighty at Church, by email or by phone (☎ 0278-243-607). I also have some knowledge of what is involved from my work with the IRD. I am the Parish recorder and confidentiality will be maintained.

PEW NEWS Sunday 20th February 2022

Living out the love of Christ in our worship and service to all people.

Welcome

A warm welcome to everyone. We are glad you have joined us in this celebration of our life of faith in God. There is a special church area to help children feel at home here, and we hope you will join us for morning tea after the Service.

The Bible Readings for today - 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Genesis 45: 3-11, 15 1 Corinthians 15: 35-38, 42-50 Luke 6: 27-38

INTRODUCTION

In telling his disciples to love their enemies Jesus draws a picture of life based on God's future, on the lavish and exuberant love of the Creator let loose upon the world once more in healing and grace. He urges us to let the life and love of this God flow through our lives already. We are to be resurrection people, those in whom God's future transforms the present.

Call to Worship:

- Leader: Come and learn the ways of life.
All: We have come to follow Jesus.
- Leader: Love your enemies, and do good to those who hate you.
All: We have come to follow Jesus.
- Leader: Bless those who curse you, and pray for those who persecute you.
All: We have come to follow Jesus.
- Leader: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.
All: We have come to follow Jesus.
- Leader: Come and learn the ways of life.

Sentence:

Love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. You will be children of the Most High; for God is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.

Luke 6:35

Collect:

God of welcome,
we encounter you in those different from us;
enlarge the tent of our lives
to embrace both friend and foe,
so that we grow to be more like you;
through Jesus Christ our Liberator, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Notices:

Now that we are in Stage 2 of the Traffic Light Red Covid response, we continue our services and activities as we have been doing. However if a number of people have to isolate due to having Covid or to being a close contact, some changes may occur, either cancellations or doing things differently. We will try to keep you informed of these changes through email, phone messages or notices on the church doors.

Vestry will meet next Sunday (27th February) at 11:45am at St Chad's.

AAW (Association of Anglican Women) - March 3rd We have been invited to visit Avonside and be given a tour of their new Church. We will meet at St Chad's at 1pm for departure at 1.15 pm. All women in the Parish are invited.

The World Day of Prayer services will be held on Friday 4th March at 10am at the Salvation Army in Linwood Avenue and at St Ambrose in Breezes Road also at 10am.

In preparation for Ash Wednesday, any palm crosses from last year can be given to Anne, Felicity or Brenda.

We are looking at what times we will hold Lenten study groups and will be putting out information and sign-up sheets for these soon.
