PEW NEWS Sunday 8th May 2022

Living out the love of Christ in our worship and service to all people.

Welcome

A warm welcome to everyone. We are glad you have joined us in this celebration of our life of faith in God. There is a special church area to help children feel at home here, and we hope you will join us for morning tea after the Service.

The Bible Readings for today - 4th Sunday of Easter

Acts 9: 36-43

Revelation 7: 9-17

John 10: 22-30

INTRODUCTION

What is it that the sheep hear when they listen to and follow the voice of Jesus? We don't have to look further than what is set out in today's gospel. In it we hear of the promise of everything that will ever matter in this life and the next: eternal life. Life which goes deep in what matters now and extends far beyond our imagination. And we hear the uncompromising promise of protection not once, but twice: that those whom God has claimed will not, cannot, be snatched away. No matter how insistently those other voices promise or threaten.

Call to Worship:

Leader: Whoever we are
All: We are known to God

Leader: Whatever we've done
All: We belong to God

Leader: Wherever we go
All: We are loved by God

Leader: Every day, every moment
All: God is our friend

Sentence:

The Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to the springs of the water of life, and God will wipe every tear from their eyes.
Revelation 7:17

Collect:

Alleluia, God Eternal,
our guide and our protector,
in troubles and uncertainty, lead us;
in fearfulness and hardship, secure us.
Through Jesus Christ our Liberator,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Our Garage Sale last Saturday was a great success, with $1049.10 taken so far. There was also $111.50 made from selling books from the bookshop. Special thanks to Neale and Patty for their hard work, and to all who helped in any way.

The next joint parish worship is on Sunday 29th May at 10am at St Ambrose.

Donations Tax Receipts — regrettably this is a slow task this year for me, what with two sets of annual accounts to reconcile, the AGM and a number of other things last month. I expect to have all the receipts out during the second half of May.— Adrian (Parish Recorder).
