PEW NEWS Sunday 30th October 2022

Living out the love of Christ in our worship and service to all people.

Welcome

A warm welcome to everyone. We are glad you have joined us in this celebration of our life of faith in God. There is a special church area to help children feel at home here, and we hope you will join us for morning tea after the Service.

The Bible Readings for today - All Saints Day

Daniel 7: 1-3, 15-18

Ephesians 1: 11-23

Luke 6: 20-31

INTRODUCTION

Although in the New Testament 'saints' refers to all Christians, the Church soon gave special honour to the heroes of the faith, especially martyrs. In the early Church, a feast commemorating all martyrs seems to have been observed in association with Pentecost. The extension of the feast to include all the saints and its observance on 1 November emerged sometime in the eighth century. The feast allows us to express our sense of communion with all those who have gone before us, whether known or unknown, who have witnessed to their faith in Christ.

Call to Worship:

Leader: On our pilgrimage of faith, in a changing and uncertain world –
All: we do not walk alone: the Lord is with us.

Leader: We remember all those who taught us faith –
All: that cloud of martyrs whose example burns bright in our memory.

Leader: God of grace, by whose love the world exists –
All: show us your face once again and reveal to us your glory.

Sentence:

Know what is the hope to which God has called you, what are the riches of the glorious inheritance in the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of God’s power in us who believe. Ephesians 1:18–19

Collect:

Almighty God,
your saints are one with you
in the mystical body of Christ;
give us grace to follow them
in all virtue and holiness until we come to those inexpressible joys which you have prepared for those who truly love you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Post-Communion Sentence:

These are they who have put off mortal clothing and have put on the immortal, and have confessed the name of God; now they are being crowned, and receive palms. 2 Esdras 2:45
